April, 2008

Artists' Directory Extended deadline: April 11th 2008

The Community Arts Council of Prince George is compiling their 6th bi-annual Artists' Directory. We are inviting you to participate by being featured in our unique, comprehensive Artists' Directory for 2008/2009. The previous versions of the Artists' Directory were very popular. More than 2,000 copies were distributed within Prince George at Tourism Prince George, provincial tourism outlets, Prince George Airport, Hotels, Bed and Breakfasts, Motels, Library, Galleries, College of New Caledonia, UNBC, Pine Centre Mall, various northern campgrounds, businesses and at our Artisan Gift Shoppe. Because of the demand we are increasing our number of copies to 2,500. To apply or to receive further information on this wonderfully affordable opportunity, please contact Jennifer at Jennifer@studio2880.com or by phone at 562-4526.

Visit Our Artisan Gift Shoppe!

Come and check out the Community Arts Council Artisan Gift Shoppe. You will find unique one of a kind gifts for any occasion including weddings, graduation and retirement. We carry a variety of local art such as wood and stone carvings, pine beetle products, pottery, jewelery, glass clothing, fiber and visual art!

The Spring Arts Bazaar is fast approaching! The event, which is taking place on June 14, will feature some of Prince George's most talented artists. The bazaar will also feature our famous celebrity chili cook-off, where teams of local celebrities and artisans will compete for the title of "Best Chili". This will be a fun filled day with lots of entertainment for the whole family! There are still spaces available for artisans in the Spring Arts Bazaar Art Market. Interested applicants may submit three samples of their work to Jennifer Rubadeau: 2820 15th Avenue Prince George BC V2M 1T1

Studio Fair 2008

Studio Fair will be taking place from October 31st - November 2nd this year. We have already received an overwhelming response from applicants from across Canada. Though there are still spaces available those who are interested in taking part should apply as soon as possible. Applications are on a first come first serve basis, pending acceptance. Further information can be found at our new website www.studio2880.com and any questions can be directed to Jennifer@studio2880.com.

Door and Sign Designs

The Community Arts Council and Studio 2880 are looking to hire local artisans to submit designs for the painting of our front door and new signs for our building and our front lawn.

Those artists interested should submit their designs to: Jennifer Rubadeau; 2820 15th Ave Prince George, B.C V2M 1T1
Deadline for application is May 1st

What our member groups are up to...

The CAR~MA: Driving Destiny art exhibit has parked itself at Artspace for the month of April. This year, the third annual environmental art show focuses on the car and its impacts on our planet. Twenty regional artists have come together to create the show, which includes watercolour and acrylic paintings, installation pieces, prose, drawings, collage and more.

Join the artists on Earth Day, April 22 at 7:15 p.m. at Artspace to view the film Who Killed the Electric Car? Followed by refreshments and an opportunity to celebrate the show and meet the artists. Admission to the film and celebration are free and everyone is welcome.
