Spring Arts Bazaar

Spring is here and the Community Arts Council is bustling with excitement over this annual spring fund raiser. Every year tents of artisans grace the front lawn at Studio 2880 selling their wares. Various live entertainment performs throughout the day, as the community browses the tents and silent auction. The Prince George Potter's Guild has their ever popular seconds table and of course, there is the Great Northern Chili Cook Off.

A central part of this fund raiser for both the Potter's Guild and the Community Arts Council is the Chili Cook Off. For only $15 you can purchase your own beautiful hand thrown bowl. As if it couldn't get any better than that you can then sample chili from various local public figures and vote for the best chef among them.

This year the Community Arts Council will also be featuring a community art project. Join with the rest of the community to create an original piece of art that will be displayed year-round at the front of Studio 2880.

The Spring Arts Bazaar is a festival like no other so be sure to mark your calendars for Saturday, June 11th.

The Art Market will open at 10:00 am and the Chili Cook Off will begin at 11:00 am.

With something for everyone this event will be one that your family will not want to miss!

Studio Fair for Local Artisans and Consignors

The Community Arts Council is already thinking about the largest juried art fair in Northern BC - Studio Fair! With over seventy vendors from across Canada it is an exciting event and we are looking for artisans who would like to participate. For a reduced price local artisans are invited to rent a booth specifically designed for local and emerging artists for the weekend. If artists are unable to commit to manning a booth we would invite you to participate in the Studio 2880 Consignment Shop.

Studio Fair is also in need of volunteers. There are many positions available from ticket checking to booth relief to coffee service. By volunteering you get a free pass to the event and the opportunity to help your local Community Arts Council with their largest fundraiser of the year.

If you are interested in participating in Studio Fair in any capacity please contact Crystie at arts@studio2880.com or 250-562-4526.

Necklace by Jan Rose

From the Executive Director

Hello Everyone! I hope you all had a great Easter Holiday! We're kicking off May with a call for participants! We are putting up 4 foot by 4 foot square murals of all of our Tenants and Guilds here at Studio 2880! But we need your help! We need your ideas, creativity, man and woman power! We will supply the paint and organize things. You come up with the ideas and then bring them to me for approval then paint it up, and we'll put it up! The Guilds and tenants for the complex are: Studio 2880, Preschool of the Arts!, Public Radio, Community Foundation, Artist's Co-Op, Fibre Arts Guild, Quilter's Guild, Potter's Guild, and the PGSO. If you have a group that you would like to see represented that is not a tenant member, contact me and we'll talk! E-mail me at: executive@studio2880.com if you would like to participate! Let's liven up the face of this place!!

In the same light, our volunteer Creative Fusion installment crew: Milan Basic, Elain Lamb, Emily Paterson, Lyn Thibault received Shining Stars awards from volunteer Prince George this past month. Great job everyone! We could not have done the installation without you! The two others on the crew were: Wendy Young, Executive Director and Lynda Anderson-Project Coordinator. Look out, we may be contacting you all again to hang this one...

Wendy Young, Executive Director

Artisan Gift Shoppe

Studio 2880 is a juried artisan gift shoppe and ticket centre for both in house tickets and Ticketmaster events. It is designed to help local artists sell their wares and give the public an opportunity to buy local items, both functional and decorative. The shoppe has an extensive selection of pottery, wood turning (including the popular beetle pine), fibre arts, paintings, photography, carvings, jewellery and much, much more.

We will look forward to seeing you at the Studio 2880 Gift Shoppe at 2820 15th Ave.

Studio 2880 Gift Shoppe hours are Monday to Saturday 9:30 am to 5:00 pm.

From the Arts Coordinator & Artist Liaison

I hope that everyone has had a fantastic Easter break. The sun is shining and I have heard that warmer weather is on it's way. Come on Spring, you can do it!

There is a lot happening at the Community Arts Council with the Spring Arts Bazaar approaching and Studio Fair on the horizon. There is still room for artisans to come to the Art Market at the Spring Arts Bazaar. If you would like to participate please let me know so that you are guaranteed a spot. Studio Fair is filling up quickly so be sure to get your application in as soon as possible. There are still some local artisan booths available so be sure to take advantage of the reduced rates.

Volunteers are a vital part to all the events that we plan here. If you are interested in volunteering we could use some help for both these events. Please let me know if you have a few hours to spare on June 11 for the Spring Arts Bazaar or November 4-6 for Studio Fair.

If you have any questions, comments or suggestions please let me know. You can e-mail arts@studio2880.com, phone 250-562-4526 or stop into Studio 2880.

Feature Gallery

The Community Arts Council is currently exhibiting the works of Crystal Desharnais and Jan Rose. Their art will be on display in the Feature Gallery until May 31. The Community Arts Council will be setting the Feature Gallery up for Betty Kovacic and Art Betke to be exhibited in June and July.

Crystal Desharnais and Jan Rose

Nothing is more exciting for Crystal Desharnais than to be able to step into a world of color and passion for painting. Whenever there is a window, Crystal will joyously take it, whether it be in the public setting of Tastebuds & Co Cafe or in the evening solace of her home studio she will pour out her heart into her canvas until she feels the Lords work is complete! Her love for God is her greatest source of inspiration. Her joy and honesty when she paints is what makes her paintings come alive and feel relatable and so deeply real even in the abstract pieces. Each painting is approached with a sense of sincerity. Nothing is held back or hidden. What ever she feels, peace or pain, celebration or sympathy, all drench the canvas with the same level of integrity. Painting to express what she is feeling or what ever God has inspired her to create has enabled Crystal to create unique, beautiful and free from outside expectations art that is like no other. So many things inspire her work that one would find it hard to put into a particular style. "My style", she says, "is never going to arrive! I hope to never land on one particular way of doing things. I want to always be growing and changing, learning and letting what I experience influence me in all that I create!"

Alive Again - The Truth Project is a new collection created by Crystal Desharnais that speaks to the magnificence of life through the lens of Truth. This perspective of truth for Crystal is an examination of her from within and the world around her. Through the exploration of Truth there is an awakening of life that is provoked that cannot be ignored....

The full collection of Crystal's work may be viewed at www.blessingsstudio.com.

Jan Rose has been creating unique, handcrafted jewelry in her home studio, Roseworks Jewelry, for over five years. Her home and studio are located on an acreage 8 kilometers from Prince George's city centre.

Designing and creating beautiful things is her passion and she often has complex knitting and needlework projects on the go when she's not making jewelry. She feels that beauty is good for the soul and loves making and wearing jewelry that catches the eye. Jan works mainly in sterling silver, semi-precious stones, freshwater pearls, Swarovski crystals, and copper. Their infinite variety of shapes, colors, and textures always provides her with inspiration. "There is a great feeling of satisfaction in creating a piece that you know is 'right'. The serendipity of the often evolving and occasionally surprising creation of a piece is what makes this art form so interesting. I believe the smallest detail in a piece is as important as what immediately catches your eye. "

Jan also makes a line of jewelry she calls "Paper and Pearls", using freshwater pearls and recycled paper beads from BeadforLife, a non-profit organization supporting impoverished women in Uganda. This line comes with a small card with information about BeadforLife.

Jan finds the art and craft of making jewelry always intriguing and exciting, and relishes the challenge of constantly developing new skills and styles.

For the shared experience of custom pieces that are uniquely your own, Jan can be contacted at jw_rose@telus.net, or by phone at 250-963-9258. Her jewelry can also be found online at her "Etsy shop", www.JRoseWorksJewelry.etsy.com.

Betty Kovacic and Art Betke

Betty Kovacic and Art Betke will have their work exhibited in the Feature Gallery from June to July. The Opening Reception will take place on Friday, June 10 from 7:00 pm to 9:00 pm.

Betty Kovacic is a celebrated artist in Prince George and is known as the humanitarian among artists. Her interest in the human condition informs her art. For six years she focused on the multitude of issues surrounding the Missing Women of British Columbia. Recently, after exploring Operas such as "Tristan and Isolode," she began to explore myths of metaphysical love.

Art Betke is a member of the Prince George Woodturners Guild and has earned a name for himself with his pierced bowls and wood that has been turned so thin it is as light as a feather. As a creative and innovative artist he is continually coming up with new designs that delight all who see them.

Come meet the artists at the Opening night on Friday, June 10th from 7:00pm to 9:00pm with light refreshments and 10% off all Gift Shoppe merchandise.

For more information please contact Crystie Tarr, Artist Liaison at: 250-562-4526 or arts@studio2880.com.

Preschool of the Arts Registration

The Community Arts Council is now accepting registration for the Preschool of the Arts. This year the preschool has had such an incredible response that the CAC will be offering an afternoon session in addition to the morning classes.

The Preschool of the Arts offers an ECE trained teacher, a focus on the arts, kindergarten readiness, a positive and friendly environment and a password protected, real time video feed so you can check on your child at any time from most any computer.

For more information please contact the Community Arts Council at 250-562-4526. Registration packages are available at Studio 2880 and online at www.studio2880.com.

Clint Neufeld: Grandpa Used To Wash My Hands With Gasoline

Clint Neufeld, from Osler, Saskatchewan, is ex-military and a former firefighter. He works with concepts of masculine identity, currently in the form of ceramic transformations of engines and transmissions. Taking a typically male preoccupation with muscle cars he replicates these components in ceramic. Finished like fine china, these sculptures transform a grease monkey's love of car parts into something precious. Placed on tea carts or chaises longue, they are made the object of attention, the equivalent of a prized tea service or reclining nude.

Artists across the province working in any media were invited to submit work to this juried exhibition which explores the theme "US". As a collection of individuals, we make up our families, our neighborhoods, communities, towns and state, sometimes blending in easily to those around us, sometimes sticking out because of our differences. Homogenous or disparate, what makes us who we are? This exhibition offers a range of perspectives through recent work by artists from across the central interior of British Columbia.

New Displays at the Artisan Gift Shoppe

The Studio 2880 Artisan Gift Shoppe is getting a face lift. Artists are continually bringing in new and fantastic pottery, wood, jewellery, paintings, photography and more. However this face lift is slightly different. Thanks to Patrick Kelly of P. Kelly Consulting Inc. the Gift Shoppe is now able to display the works of art on amazing refurbished antiques. As this is being written there are five new desks, tables and sideboards that have been brought in to the long list of art that is being sold at Studio 2880.

It looks fantastic and we are thrilled to be accepting this new type of art form. Slowly but surely the pine shelves are disappearing.

Be sure to stop in regularly to see the changes that are being made during this exciting time of change.

Groop Gallery Anniversary Call For Entry

We all deserve a pat on the back for enduring another long, cold, snowy winter. The Groop Gallery's upcoming themed art exhibition titled 'Into the Light' intends to celebrate the days growing longer, the weather getting warmer and the growing excitement and anticipation the changing of the seasons. The fresh new life that springs forth as the snow piles recede from the warmth of a new summer's sun.

The Groop Gallery urges all local artists to submit works that define their own personal interpretation of the chosen theme. Two or three dimensional original works in any media are encouraged.

Please submit clear images with the title, size, medium and price to melanie@anythingmetal.com or to info@groopgallery.com.

com by May 15th. There is no fee charged for the exhibition of chosen work, however a 40% commission on the listed price of the artwork will be retained by the gallery in the event of a sale.

The date of the opening night of this show will be from 7:00 pm to 9:00 pm on June 3rd. The opening will also commemorate the one year (+ 33 days) anniversary date of the Groop Gallery which held its grand opening on May 1, 2010.

The Groop Gallery looks forward to seeing some inspirational images that celebrate not only a new season of change, but an exciting new year for the Groop Gallery and all the talented artists of our region!

Artists in the Schools

Artists in the Schools is an exciting project developed by the Community Arts Council of Prince George and District to compliment and expand on arts programming within School District #57. It is designed to offer workshops and lessons taught by a knowledgeable artist, to classes within School District #57. The Community Arts Council believes that a child exposed to the arts at an early age will develop an appreciation of the arts throughout his/her lifetime.

Artists in the Schools provides artists with an opportunity to bring to the students experiences in various facets of the arts and gives the students a chance to learn from a "real live" artist, and experience in which they relish. Artists in the Schools is a project that continues to be met with great enthusiasm, from the students, teachers and artists.

Although the Community Arts Council is working in conjunction with School District #57, these workshops have been made possible through grants offered by the Community Arts Council of Prince George. The arts are a diverse subject and every year the Community Arts Council strives to offer a variety of workshops.

This year there were four artists who offered their expertise to the schools. Leanna Carlson is the President of the CAC and an active member of the PG Potter's Guild. She is known for her organic designs, handmade glazes and use of clay from the Fraser River. She provided kindergarten through to grade seven classes a course in building either clay and nail animals or small faces. She also instructed the teachers in the use of the school kiln. Andrea Shauer is an artist and graduate of UNBC who is looking to further her career in art therapy. She used collage pizzas to teach kindergarten through grade four all about the colour wheel. Andrea also explored recycled and mixed media artwork by making cardboard robots. Carol Skulmoski is quite involved in the arts in Mackenzie and offered her expertise in paper quilling, papier macher and macrame key rings to grades five through seven. Ron Clemmons is the President of the Woodturner's Guild and an active woodturner, he offered students in grades eight through twelve a course in wood turning, wood identification and characteristics as well as shop care and safety.

The Community Arts Council is thrilled to have been able to offer these talented artists to the schools and look forward to hearing how they have benefited the classes art programs. It will be exciting to see what creative projects the artists come up with for Artists in the Schools next year.

For more information on Artists in the Schools please contact Crystie Tarr by e-mail at arts@studio2880.com or by phone at 250-562-4526. More information is also available at www.studio2880.com.

Northern Stars Concert

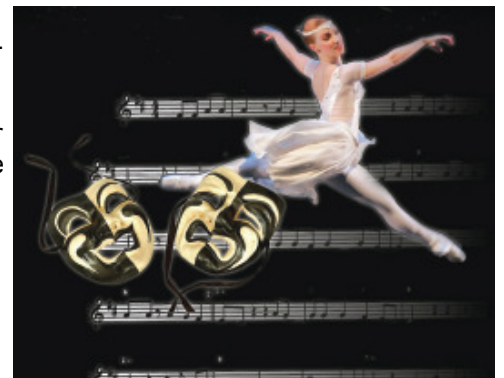

With the best dance, music, speech arts and drama of the year the Northern Stars 2011 concert promises to be a spectacular event. The Northern Stars began to provide an opportunity for young performers to perform for the community just before they head off to attend the annual provincial dance, music, and speech arts and drama event. The performers are chosen by adjudicators to represent our Prince George festivals and to receive further adjudication and workshops at the Performing Arts BC event. The finalists from the Dance Festival, Music Festival and Speech Arts and Drama Festival will be off to the Performing Arts BC event in Kamloops at the end of May have a wonderful opportunity to perform for Prince George before they leave. This concert will be held at the Prince George Playhouse on Thursday, May 19th. Doors will open at 6:30 pm and the performance will begin at 7:30 pm. Admission is by donation.

The second objective of this concert is to raise funds for three lasting scholarships which are held in an endowment fund by the Prince George Community Foundation for each festival. The Prince George Concert Association established the initial funds and terms of the scholarships. Each year the funds raised from the concert build the endowment. Donations for the scholarship fund will be collected at the door.

Any further inquiries can be made to Judy Neiser at the Prince George Community Foundation.
