Feature Gallery

The Community Arts Council will be exhibiting the works of Keith Carlson and Ron Clemmons in the Feature Gallery from October to November. The Opening Reception will take place on Thursday, October 6 from 7:00 pm to 9:00 pm.

Keith Carlson fell in love with Art in grade two and wanted to know everything he could about the subject and how to become an Artist. By grade ten he wanted to become an Art Teacher, a wish he managed to fulfill for many years in Prince George. Now that Keith has retired from his dream, he devotes much of his time to producing his own works as well as participating in various Arts Committees and Boards. He was an 'Artist in Residence' at the Two Rivers Gallery this past February developing work in response to the PGSO One Song project. He also shows his work at various events and venues such as the Community Art Council's Studio Fair, Spring Arts Bazaar, and the Two Rivers Gallery's Artists in the Garden. Recently, his work has been on display at the DBIA office on 2nd and Brunswick Street in Prince George. Keith is represented at the Studio 2880 Artisan Gift Shoppe as well as The Groop Gallery on 3rd Ave.

The works that Keith will be presenting entitled 'Line, Colour and Other Such Things' are an extension of large non-objective pieces in which line and colour are the main expressive tools. Keith finds himself drawn to scenes and objects which are entanglements of colour, shape, and lines. (He finds that the nature of human existence and patterns of living to be parallel in nature to these entanglements). The local Continued on page 2...

landscapes do not necessarily reveal great vistas of beautiful mountains or fabulous architecture. It does, however, present a rich visual display both wild and domestic, which has to be appreciated on a less grandiose scale. Keith feels the vistas of hoar frost filigree in winter are very inspirational. In his large paintings Keith attempts to express the fundamental nature of what he sees and experiences by leaving the traditional object out of the picture. In the present paintings, he returns to the object and explores the power of line to alter and perhaps enhance the expressive nature of the painted object.

Ron Clemmons first studied woodturning at Brigham Young University in 1982 on a two week course which really inspired him to continue his craft. He successfully attended his first Studio Fair in 1982 and has been to countless Woodturning Symposiums, Street Fairs and Wood Shows over the years. Ron has won several prizes at the Northern Wood Forums and was chosen to participate in the 1986 and 1990 Festival of the Arts. Woodturning will always interest him as the number of products which can be made grows with each year. Ron considers himself a Professional Woodturner and he will always strive to improve his techniques and products.

Come meet the artists at the Opening night on Thursday, October 6th from 7:00 pm to 9:00 pm with light refreshments and 10% off all Gift Shoppe merchandise.

From the Executive Director

I just wanted to take a moment to thank you all for coming our to the 4x4 Mural unveiling and then sticking around for what we think was the best AGM in a long time. It was short informative and we got to hear from our members. So, thank you very much, your support is appreciated and valued because without you all, we wouldn't be here! Same time again next year? I'll do the baking again and make more, promise!

Wendy Young, Executive Director

From the Artist Liaison

Once again the month of September has flown by, where does the time go anyway? October is looking to be a fantastic month with the Feature Gallery exhibiting the works of Keith Carlson and Ron Clemmons, Milan Basic's show at the Two Rivers Gallery, one getting ready for showing at the Groop Gallery, my own going up in Williams Lake, many exciting Halloween parties and, of course, all the last preparations for Studio Fair! We are so excited for Studio Fair. Not only is it the Community Arts Council's major fundraiser of the year but it's a lot of fun as well. This year we will be celebrating Studio Fair's 35th Anniversary with the most amazing snowflake ornaments made by the Potters' Guild to the first fifty people through the door on each day of Studio Fair. The vendors this year are amazing, well they are every year, but we're thrilled to welcome many new vendors as well as those who have been attending Studio Fair for many years. For a full list of who will be coming please visit our website at www.studio2880.com. There is also going to be an absolutely gorgeous antique dining set up for silent auction provided by Antiques on Sixth. We can't wait to see you there!

Crystie Tarr, Artist Liaison

Community Arts Council AGM

The Community Arts Council would like to extend a huge thank you to everyone who attended the AGM on Wednesday, September 28. It was an enjoyable evening and the liveliest of meetings with a mural launch, door prizes and exciting reports. Thank you to everyone who came out and showed your support, gave reports and ideas, the attendance and input was fantastic!

The Murals are Up!

As a second wave to the Creative Fusion Project, the CAC formed a partnership with several local artists to create 4x4 murals that were mounted on the 2820 building facing 15th Ave. Each mural depicts the various groups housed within the Studio 2880 complex and supported by the Community Arts Council. Thank you so much to all the artists who volunteered their time to paint these murals and spruce up the front of the building:

- Paul Alexander - Culture of Love
- Lynda Anderson - Music
- Crystallynn Tarr - Radio
- Keith Carlson - Performing Arts
- Laura Chandler - Shadow & Light
- Lynn Box, Wendy Seury, Cheryl Purves, Nancy Spensley, Linda Kineshanko - Quilting
- Lynn Box, Wendy Stevenson, Keith Carlson, Lee-Ann Delany, Joy Cotter - Visual Arts
- Karen Heathman - Pottery
- Susan Malone - Children

There is rumor that more will be coming so be sure to take a look as you drive by, or better yet, stop in and have a little art walk around the 2880 complex.

Studio Fair 2011

The Community Arts Council is proud to present their 35th Annual Studio Fair! This year promises to be an exciting one with more vendors, an antique furniture set for auction donated by Antiques on Sixth, and beautiful hand made snowflake ornaments by the Potters' Guild for the first 50 people through the doors on each day.

This year's show will be held at the Civic Centre on November 4th -6th so be sure to come by and browse some of the finest wares from across Canada. There is home decor, fashion items and accessories, pottery galore, all kind of gourmet items and much, much more. It will surely be a feast for your eyes and taste buds!

This year's returning vendors include:

Adrian Kliss (B.R.C), Alphabet Photography Exhibits, Amiga Pottery, Brigitte Campeau, Cariboo Wool Bedding, Chris Harris Studio Gallery, Creative Ironwork, Creighton Valley Apiaries, Crystal Clear Designs, Daksha's Gourmet Spices, Designs By S.A.D., Dvorak Gourmet, Fine Threads Clothing, Forest Felters, G.W. Volunteer Opportunities

Of course, volunteers are vital to making this show a success and the Community Arts Council is in need of quite a few for such a large event. All volunteers will receive free admission on the day of their volunteer shift and a huge thank you from the Community Arts Council. If you love people, the arts and would like to help out we would love to hear from you. Please contact Crystie by e-mail: arts@studio2880.com or phone: 250-562-4526.

Opportunities for Artisans

Are you a local artist? Would you like to have your work sold at Studio Fair but don't have the time to commit to a full weekend? The Community Arts Council will be having a consignment shop set up at Studio Fair featuring work from the Studio 2880 Artisan Gift Shoppe and local artisans. The Gift Shoppe features an excellent location for your work to be viewed, a very low commission at only 25% and the option of paying a minimal administration fee of $25 or two hours of your time to help run the consignment shop. If you are interested in having your wares at Studio Fair please complete the form below and send/drop off at Studio 2880 attn: Crystie, 2820 15th Ave, Prince George, BC, V2M 1T1 or e-mail the following information to arts@studio2880.com.

Matthew Wheeler: The Glacial Lens

Opening Reception: September 8th at 7:30 pm

Photography Workshop: September 17th from 1-4 pm

Matthew Wheeler: The Glacial Lens presents photographs taken by the artist with an ice lens in a technique he pioneered in the 1980s. His process originated with a challenge given by Scientific American Magazine and the CBC: start fire with an ice lens. Inspired by the nature that surrounds him, he makes his own camera lenses with ice harvested from ponds and rivers or frozen glacier-melt water. It gives a lively character to his images, a flared and distorted impression of reality that transports viewers to a dream like state. But it also suggests a distinct approach to photography in which technology becomes more natural and experimentation is prioritized to let chance happen.

Milan Basic: Better Days

Opening Reception: October 6th at 7:30 pm

Better Days is an exhibition full of honesty, dreams and integrity. Milan's work encourages individuals and society as a whole to look back at the past, where they've come from and invites them to embrace both past failures and successes, learn from them and use them to look forward and build a better future. It is when we are honest with ourselves that we can look forward and build our dreams - the dreams of the future. The exhibition includes several paintings that have earned Milan a reputation in Vancouver as an act of his looking to his own personal past and a new cement sculpture he has just recently created as he continues forward on his personal mission: to be the best version of himself that he can be, thereby making dreams. Milan's work invites you to come, embrace vulnerability and dare to dream.

Groop Gallery

Exhibitions

Brotherness

Milan Basic's 'Brotherness' begins at the Groop Gallery in Prince George on Sept. 9th and will run until October 15th. Artist Milan Basic will be presenting a total of 30 pieces in his brotherness series, which explores the human condition and the connectedness we all share. It is a flowing, transitional, and inspiring journey and well worth seeing.

Dreams and Fragments

Mark Tworow's exhibition Dreams and Fragments will be featured at the Groop Gallery from November 4th to 26th with the Opening Night on Friday, November 4th from 7:00 pm to 9:00 pm.

Call for Entry

The Groop Gallery is announcing the new Call for Submissions - 'SOMETHING OLD; SOMETHING NEW'. This theme may invoke imagery relating to the end of another year and a new year approaching, or it might inspire you to create a new piece with found objects? Re-create an old work into a new masterpiece? Possibly a memory from your wedding day? Parent and child?...Your artistic license is encouraged!

Please submit clear images with title, size, medium and price to: melanie@anythingmetal.com or info@groopgallery.com. The deadline for submissions will be on November 15th, 2011 and the Opening Night will be on Friday, December 3rd.

There are a few changes for the Gallery's 'Groop shows'. There will be a reduced commission of 30% on the sale of any artwork. There will now be a $20 exhibition fee for each artwork accepted, and will be payable upon delivery to the gallery. This fee however, will be deducted from the gallery's commission in the event of a sale in order to reimburse the artist. The fee is otherwise retained by the gallery to cover expenses and overhead costs.

'Groop Shows' are open to all established and emerging artists in the northern region, however delivery and retrieval of artworks to the gallery are the responsibility of the artist, and in a timely manner. Artwork left for more than 60 days from the close of a show may not be covered by insurance.

Artwork must be properly prepared for hanging or display or will be subject to rejection upon delivery.

IMA Art is your Business

Is Art Your Business? Do you want to learn more about connecting with your market, tapping into funding, keeping track of your sales and expenses and the community groups and resources in your region? Are you creative and expressive but when it comes to making money from your art you tend to fall short? From October 14th – 16th Island Mountains Arts, in partnership with Quesnel Community Futures, is hosting Art Is Your Business, a conference designed for artists. Drawing workshop leaders from throughout the province, these action packed days, filled with interactive workshops, round table discussions and networking opportunities will provide tools to help you grow your business. We are proud to have the support of many local and regional businesses and organizations that are helping to make this conference possible. Register before September 16th and receive a 25% discount on your conference fee.

Conference Dates are Friday October 14th 7:00 pm, Saturday October 15th 9:00am - 9:00pm (with breaks and a catered lunch), Sunday October 16th 9:00am - 5:00pm (with breaks and a catered lunch)

This weekend will be made up of about a dozen workshops and discussions, most will be facilitated by one or two accomplished artists, crafts people, arts community representative or arts employee. There will also be Round Table Discussions made up of participants and numerous experts. These workshops and discussions are designed to open up everyone's minds, build confidence and provide varying perspectives. All participants will leave with memory sticks containing all conference information as well as hard copies of all handouts.

A few of the topics to be explored are; funding applications, accounting made easy, galleries-public/private, community groups - their resources and how to access them, marketing and branding, bios and cvs, social media, copyright and the artist and the list goes on.

The full cost of the course is $100 with bursaries available (please e-mail coordinator@imarts.com for details). Art is Your Business will be held at both the IMA Gallery and the Community Hall Conference Room, Wells BC

For more information about the workshop, registration and bursaries please contact Beth Holden by e-mail at coordinator@imarts.com or by phone at 250-994-3466 1-800-442-2787.
